POSTSCRIPT

Slum Rehabilitation in Mumbai

The government should give up the idea of making money out of slum lands and declare the slum land to not be on the market and instead be owned by a community land reserve. page 33

Gender Neutrality and the POSH Act

Judicial decisions on questions of gender neutrality in laws against sexual harassment tend to decontextualise and selectively draw upon feminist and queer debates on the subject. page 62

Palm Oil Plantations

Monoculture plantations promoted by the state and its private partners in Tripura offer minimal economic benefits to marginalised tribal communities and perpetuate state control primarily to serve external trade and resource extraction interests. page 28

Navayana Pragmatism

Fraternity was only one part of Ambedkar's complex body of work, but it is a concept that points to a constantly resonant theme in his novel form of pragmatism. page 47
